6. Do not Select a Reversing Date

For Stock accruals you do not select a reversing date.

Creating a Bill/Supplier/Prepayment Accrual

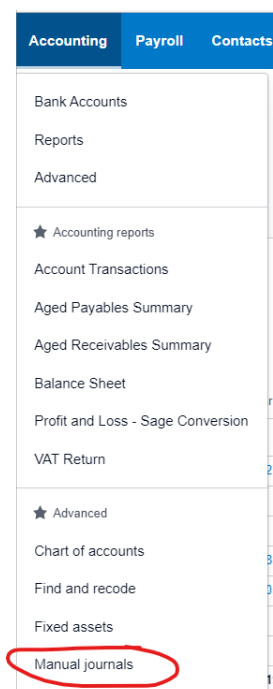

You must have permissions to Manual Journals to make Sales Accruals

Sometimes you want to split the cost of something over several months or a year. You can do this by creating a recurring journal.

Examples of accruals...

Type	Period	Total Amount	Amount Per Month
ISO Audit	12 months	£1200	£100
New Arizona Printhead	6 Months	£2400	£400

1. From the Accounting Menu > Manual Journals

2. Select New Journal or Repeating Journal

3. The Narration is so you can quickly see the content of the journal, think of it like the invoice number

A light blue rectangular box with the label 'Narration' in bold at the top left. Below the label is a white rectangular input field with a thin blue border.

3.1 For Bills the Narration should be the Purchase Order Number and Supplier you are accruing for

e.g. MM12345 - Canon - Arizona Print Head

3.2 For Prepayments the Narration should be the Purchase Order Number, Supplier and The Period

e.g. MM12345 - Canon - Arizona Print Head - 6 Month Split

4. Enter the lines of the Manual Journal

For Bills there should be two lines, one Credit to the Nominal Code of the Bill e.g. Fuel and one .
The credit amount should be the total amount of the bill.

Description	Account	Tax Rate	Debit GBP	Credit GBP
QUO:927668 J Thomson Colour Printers Limited	4102 - Unconfirmed Sales	No VAT		982.49
QUO:927668 J Thomson Colour Printers Limited	2109 - Accruals	No VAT	982.49

5. Select the Date

You should select the date you want the accrual to appear in. e.g. If you are accruing an May Invoice in April it would be 30/04/2022

6. [OPTIONAL] Setting the Repeat

A light blue rectangular box containing two sections. The first section is labeled 'Repeat this journal every' and contains a dropdown menu set to '0' and another dropdown menu set to 'Month(s)'. The second section is labeled 'End Date (Optional)' and contains a white rectangular input field.

I always try and set this to the 27th so it isn't affected by February.

6. [OPTIONAL] Select the Automatic Reversing Date

For bills you should always set the Auto Reversing Date as the following month, this allows you to track when a Sales Invoice has been properly invoiced and reversed.

Auto Reversing Date (optional)
